

Safeguarding Policy
for the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer (London 1100)

The Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, commonly known as the Redemptorists, is a Catholic Congregation dedicated to missionary work.

The Congregation is a registered charity, number 252041 in England, and SC039359 in Scotland.

The charity is the London Province of the Congregation representing 5 communities in England and Scotland and 3 communities in Zimbabwe.

Its missionary work across the Province is “to follow the example of Jesus Christ the Redeemer by preaching the Word of God to the Poor and most abandoned.”

Our Safeguarding Principles

The Redemptorists value every person as an individual and we treat everyone that we come into contact with as created in God’s image for a purpose. In our missionary work we are determined to treat everyone with

God’s love and mercy

Respect

Courtesy

Understanding

Consideration

Tolerance

Compassion

Integrity

Whether you are a member of our Congregation, a beneficiary, a volunteer, an employee or however you engage with us we aim to create a safe and respectful environment in which to carry out our missionary work. With regard to children, young people and anyone under our care or seeking our assistance, we are determined to practice the highest levels of safeguarding at all times. To do this we will

- Ensure that we maintain up to date safeguarding policies and procedures which are reviewed at least once a year at our annual Province Meeting. Or in response to updated regulatory guidance
- We undertake all necessary disclosure and barring checks.
- We undergo training and development courses and continuing education on safeguarding law and practices
- We review all guidance and updates within the Catholic Church to ensure that we are in line with the principles of safeguarding in our faith sector
- We conduct safeguarding audits to stress test our policies and procedures
- We risk assess all our activities with our safeguarding principles in mind
- We follow the Code of Conduct for all clergy (Caring safely for others.pdf)

Our Safeguarding Oversight

To ensure that we comply with the best and most current standards in safeguarding, we adhere to the Catholic Standards in Safeguarding (CSSA) catholicsafeguarding.org.uk and its partner organisation the Religious Life Safeguarding Service (RLSS) Religious Life Safeguarding Service.

At present, our safeguarding oversight is provided by the RLSS. As a Registered Charity we are also regulated by the Charity Commission of England and Wales, and the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator OSCR in Scotland and follow their safeguarding guidance and regulations. In line with current guidance, we report all safeguarding concerns to the police.

Our Safeguarding Consultant is Ms Tina Campbell. Tina Campbell is an Independent International Safeguarding Consultant working with and for Religious Congregations in the Catholic Church.
